THE ENTHUSIASM UNABATED

Republican Rallies in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Wards, Temperanceville, McKeesport, Braddock's Field, Connellsville, Elizabeth, Mifflin, Upper St. Clair and Wilkins Townships.

Grant "Rangers" and "Hussars."

Reception of Senator Sherman To-Night.

MEETINGS TO BE HELD.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Senator Sherman To-Night—Arrangements for his Reception.

The Committee of Arrangements appointed by the Republican County Executive Committee for the reception of Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio, who is to arrive in this city this afternoon from the West, met at City Hall on Saturday afternoon, the chairman, W. S. Purviance, Esq., presiding.

A Committee was appointed, consisting of Hon. J. K. Moorhead, Thomas Williams and Robert McKnight, to meet Senator Sherman upon his arrival at the depot this afternoon at four o'clock, and escort him in a carriage to the Monongahela House.

The Allegheny County Tanners' Club and the Second Ward, Pittsburgh, Grant and Colfax Club, were designated to escort the Senator, in connection with the above Committee, from the hotel to City Hall, where he is to speak, the escort to move at half past seven o'clock, P. M., precisely.

All the clubs in the county desiring to join in the escort should be at the Monongahela House at a quarter past seven o'clock, ready to move.

The Second Ward Club will meet at Wilkins' Hall at seven o'clock, where they will form in line and march to the Monongahela House.

Meeting at Bloomfield.

On Saturday evening a meeting of the Republicans of Bloomfield (Sixteenth ward) was held at the Wigwam. A. B. Bole, Esq., presided, with Robert Watson, John Gangwish, William Woolslayer, Richard Kirkwood, N. G. Craig, George W. Humbert, George Praetsch, Wm. G. Barr, Thomas Merkle, Benjamin Smith, John C. Steward, Samuel McKinley and M. Hohlman, Vice Presidents; Secretaries—R. H. Smith and John Woolslayer.

J. J. Seibeneck, Esq., spoke for nearly an hour in German, and elicited loud applause. He was followed by R. B. Parkinson, Esq., in a forcible speech in English, of three quarters of an hour. J. F. Zeller, Esq., closed in German. The Central Tanner Club, in uniform and with torches, visited the meeting, under command of Colonel Joe Browne, and were received with vociferous applause.

Republican Clubs at Braddock.

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the borough of Braddocks, on Friday evening. Col. E. J. Allen was called to the Chair, and J. N. Baldridge appointed Secretary. A great deal of earnest working feeling was manifested, and a Grant and Colfax and Tanners Club was organized. Isaac Mills, Jr., was elected President of the Grant and Colfax Club; C. C. Fawcett, J. N. Baldridge and Alex. McCluly, Vice Presidents; Captain M. C. Corry, Corresponding Secretary; Thomas McVay, Treasurer; Col. E. J. Allen, Wm. Rodman, George Fritz, C. C. Fawcett and M. J. Bennett, Finance Committee. A large number of Republicans joined both the Grant and Colfax, and Tanner Club. Capt. M. C. Corry, C. C. Fawcett, W. B. Robison, George V. Fritz, and M. J. Bennett were appointed a Committee to complete the organization of the Tanner Club. The borough of Braddocks will not be behind the balance of the county, and will roll up a majority for the Union ticket.

Meeting in Wilkins Township.

The Republicans of Wilkins township held a public meeting on Saturday evening, in the open air. A neat stand had been erected, and handsomely decorated with flags, Chinese lanterns, torches, etc. In the absence of Dr. Sample, President of the Grant Club, James Kelly, Esq., was called to preside. Addresses were delivered by Jacob F. Slagle, Esq., Hon. P. C. Shannon and General Blakely. The speeches occupied over two hours, and were listened to with the closest attention by an audience of between two and three hundred persons. The East Liberty Glee Club was present, and sang a number of popular campaign songs, with organ accompaniment. This Club, which has been but a short time organized, sings exceedingly well, and their songs are everywhere hailed with delight and applause.

We regret to state that a number of the Copperheads of Wilkinsburgh behaved very badly while Judge Shannon and General Blakely were speaking. An ill-mannered fellow interrupted Judge Shannon by shouting "taxes and bonds," when the Judge taking these words as a text, gave the Copperheads a most scathing rebuke, and put a quietus on them for the balance of the evening. The Judge's remarks raised a perfect storm of applause.

At the close of the meeting, Dr. Sample, President of the Club, announced the following Vigilance Committees:

District Nos. 1 and 2—John B. McFarland, Abraham Stoner, James Woodwell, Jas. Johnston, William McCrea, Henry Chalfant, R. C. Chalfant, John W. McKelvey, Samuel McKelvey, John S. McKelvey.

District No. 3—John W. Milligan, Curtis S. Haven, Robert Finney, George McCague, Wm. Swisshelm, J. S. Newmeyer.

District No. 6—Allen Kirkpatick, Elijah M. Williams, John Baldridge, James Corey.

District No. 7—Peter Perchment, Washington Snyder, Eph. Smith, Abraham Bowers, Stephen Dunbar, John Baughman.

District No. 8—James Lenhart, James Corry, Duncan Hamilton, Nathaniel Montgomery, James Gilmore, Thos. McKee, Charles Gilmore.

District No. 9.—George Harrison, John Schaeffer, Robert Jordan, Samuel Peydon, Thos. Anderson, Thos. McGahey.

District No. 10—John Perchment, John McCombs, James Moore, Jos. Johnston, William Miller.

Naturalization Committee.—Luke B. Davison, John B. McFarland, Sol. Schoyer.

Pole Raising in the Fourteenth Ward.

On Saturday evening, the Grant and Colfax Club of the Fourteenth ward raised the first section of their pole, sixty feet long, near the School House, on Fifth avenue. A grand rally of the Republicans of the ward will be held on Wednesday evening next, when addresses will be delivered by Major A. M. Brown, Mr. Boriand and others, and singing by Prof. J. W. Pope.

Another Grant Club in Elizabeth Township.

The citizens of the central part of Elizabeth township met at Union Hall School House, in that township, on Friday evening, and organized a Grant and Colfax club. The following persons were elected officers:

President—M. M. Wilson.

Vice Presidents—James Fenton and William McCracken.

Secretaries—J. R. Boyd and A. R. McClure.

Treasurer—William Kelley.

The meeting was then addressed at considerable length by Col. John Glenn, John S. Lambie, Esq., and Captain Samuel Kerr, one of the candidates for Assembly. The addresses were well received, and a vote of thanks tendered the speakers. There have been some four or five Grant Clubs organized in Elizabeth township. Five hundred Republican majority may confidently be expected from this township.

Mass Meeting in Connellsville.

A Republican mass meeting was held in front of the Walter House, in Connellsville, Fayette county, on Friday evening, which was presided over by Mr. Taylor, with a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The meeting was one of the largest ever held in Connellsville, and a delegation of about three hundred was present from Uniontown, carrying banners. The meeting was addressed by Thos. M. Marshall and B. F. Lucas, Esqs., of this city and others, the former holding the audience for an hour and a half, and Mr. Lucas for about an hour and a quarter. At the conclusion of their speeches, the ladies of Connellsville presented Messrs. Marshall and Lucas each with a large and handsome wreath, Mr. Lucas responding and returning thanks for the handsome presents.

Republican Meeting in Upper St. Clair Township.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Upper St. Clair and adjoining townships was held at Sodom, on Friday evening. A neat stand had been erected near the mill for the use of the speakers. A good band was in attendance and discoursed some excellent music. The meeting was organized by the election of J. Conner as President, and W. Murray and J. Fife as Vice Presidents.

W. S. Purviance, Esq., was introduced by the chairman, and spoke about forty minutes on the general issues of the campaign.

Thomas Ewing, Esq., followed in an argument of about an hour's duration, and was frequently applauded.

At the conclusion of his address the meeting adjourned with repeated cheers for Grant, Colfax and the whole ticket.

Republican Rally in Mifflin Township.

A grand rally of the Republicans of Mifflin and adjoining townships was held at Dravosburg on Friday evening. The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the valley, a large delegation being present from McKeesport, who had chartered a boat for the occasion, which was laden to the water's edge with people. A substantial stand had been erected for the use of the officers and speakers, which was brilliantly illuminated with lanterns. The McKeesport Glee Club, under the leadership of the Murphy brothers, was present and sang a number of songs in an excellent manner.

The meeting came to order at seven and a half o'clock by calling Wm. E. Harrison, of McKeesport, to the chair, and appointing Benj. Coursin, Wm. Oliver, Andrew Critchlow, Wm. Dunshee, B. Kilgore, Jos. A. Stone, John Wadsworth, Wm. G. Snodgrass, Jordon Fritz, Samuel Fulton, R. B. Coursin and Conrad Young as Vice Presidents, and Jos. P. Whitaker, Jos. S. [illegible] and F. H. Coursin as Secretaries.

Mr. Harrison, on taking the chair, after a few congratulatory remarks as to the large attendance at the meeting and the enthusiasm of the people to come out in such vast numbers, introduced to the audience

John F. Dravo, Esq., who, after a song by the McKeesport Glee Club, spoke to the masses in his usual earnest manner, on the many important issues of the present hour.

C. W. Robb, Esq., followed in a long and able speech on the reconstruction and financial subjects now agitating the public mind, which was well received.

Mr. Andrew Critchlow being loudly called for, came forward and made some very telling and well received remarks. The meeting, after making arrangements for the formation of a Mifflin Grant and Colfax Club, at a late hour adjourned.

Mass Meeting at Temperanceville.

A mass meeting of Republicans was held in front of Ballantine's store, in Temperanceville, on Friday night. The Republicans of the South side turned out in force, and made the meeting one of the largest held in the county during the campaign. It was certainly the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Temperanceville, fully fifteen hundred persons, a great portion of whom were workingmen, being present. Scarcely a man left the ground during the entire evening, and there has never been any more attention or sincere enthusiasm at any meeting in this or any other campaign. A neat and commodious stand had been erected in front of Ballantine's store for the use of speakers, which will remain there during the campaign. The Temperanceville Glee Club, composed of a number of men who work in the mills, and who will vote for General Negley and not for Burtt, were present and sang a number of campaign songs in a really handsome manner. A band was also in attendance and discoursed patriotic music.

The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:

President—John Ralph.

Vice Presidents—John S. Hunter, John Wilkinson, Thos. Hershberger, Thos. Ferguson, Jefferson Richardson, John Smitley, John Bryant and Nathaniel Ballantine.

Secretaries—S. H. French and James Critchlow.

After a few congratulatory remarks by the Chairman, Mr. W. C. Hull, a resident of Temperanceville, who has recently returned from Tennessee, was introduced and made a brief but practical address, giving a narrative of the cruelties and outrages perpetrated in that State by the Ku-Klux Klan and the returned rebels generally.

Samuel A. McClung, Esq., followed in an eloquent speech of half an hour's duration, discussing the various questions at issue and especially the financial question, with which he showed great familiarity, in a most admirable manner, carrying convictions to the minds of all who heard him.

John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., was next introduced, and delivered one of his usual stirring and eloquent speeches, holding the immense assemblage in close attention for an hour and a half, discussing the various points at issue between the contending parties and exhorting the Republicans upon the importance of work and organization in the campaign.

At the close of Mr. Kirkpatrick's address, at half-past ten o'clock, the meeting adjourned amid the wildest enthusiasm, and with rousing cheers for Grant, Colfax and the whole State and county tickets.

The "Grant Rangers" in Allegheny.

A meeting of the Republicans of the Fifth and Sixth wards, Allegheny, was held on Saturday evening, for the purpose of effecting an organization of the "Grant Rangers." Though no formal notice was given, the meeting was well attended, indicating that the spirit of Vermont prevailed.

Upon motion, S. S. D. Thompson, Esq., was elected President, and Daniel W. Olegar, Esq., Secretary.

The object of the meeting was understood to be to form an association to parade on horseback during the Convention, on the 24th of September, or at such times as may be deemed expedient, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. Olegar, Patterson and McClung, appointed to confer with the "Grant Legion of Allegheny County," with the view of acting in conjunction and securing uniformity of uniforms.

It was agreed to meet next Tuesday evening, at the Fifth Ward Grant Club Rooms, and citizens disposed to further the objects set off and co-operate with "Grant Clubs" and "Grant Rangers," are requested to be present on this occasion, so that unity of action will be secured.

In addition to this, on Friday evening next, a mass meeting of the citizens of the Fifth and Sixth wards will be held, and be ably addressed. Those who favored the suppression of the rebellion; and if any there are who have not concluded which way their consciences will ultimately lead them, they are earnestly and respectfully requested to attend.

Republican Rally at Braddock.

Another rally of the Republicans of Braddock's Fields, was held on Saturday evening, and was a very large and enthusiastic gathering. The meeting was organized by electing Col. E. Jay Allen as President and Isaac Mills, Jr., as Secretary.

Col. Allen, on taking the chair, made a few remarks. He spoke of the patriotism of our people during the war, and the necessity for the same patriotism now, as it was the same people we fought against for four years, now appearing under another name.

Miles S. Humphreys was then introduced, and made an earnest appeal to the workingmen, urging them not to be deceived by demagogues, but to vote for the party that had always protected the workingmen and labored for their interest. Mr. Humphreys spoke at some length and was frequently applauded.

W. T. Haines, Esq., was next introduced and discussed in an able and eloquent manner the political issues of the day. His remarks were listened to with marked attention.

The Grant and Colfax Club of Braddock's Field were out, under command of Capt. Fawcett, and made a very creditable display.

Grant Hussars.

A suggestion made by advertisement in one of the dailies Saturday, as to a mounted Grant Club for Allegheny county, has met with such favor (many tenders of membership having been received) that an immediate organization has to be made to accommodate applicants, who should apply to or address at once the Secretary of the Grant Hussars. See advertisement.

Republican Rally in the Seventeenth Ward.

The Republicans of the Seventeenth ward held a grand mass meeting at the corner of St. Mary's avenue and Butler street Saturday evening.

A neat and commodious speaker's stand has been erected on the corner of the street and is fitted up with ample accommodations for speakers and reporters. The stand was decorated with flags and Chinese lanterns and presented a fine appearance.

The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock by S. W. Reynolds, Esq., who submitted the following list of officers:

President—G. S. Bates.

Vice Presidents—J. T. McClure, A. McClintock, Joseph Mattern, H. Schmidt, Christopher Miller, John Nasser, Chris. North, W. Brown, John Schmidt, Daniel Donahue, Col. A. Scott, Christ Unverzock, Z. Wainwright, John Kutz, C. Rece, John Kinsey, Sr., Robert Kane, J. F. McCready, G. W. Gardner, M. Robert Bell, Jr., J. D. Clowse, George Holgrave, J. W. Riddle, Edward Morganroth, John Chislett, Jr., Ed. Davison, Adam Esler, Wm. Livingston, Thomas Jones, W. Bailey.

Secretaries—F. M. Gardiner, G. W. Nichols, Robert F. Black, A. J. Harbaugh, John Miller, Frank Poland and the reporters of the Republican press.

The President introduced as the first speaker General A. L. Pearson, who made a brief speech, appealing principally to the soldier element present, and urging those who had fought under the gallant leader of the Armies of the Republic, to rally in support of their candidate. In the course of his speech the speaker displayed a rebel flag which had been captured at Richmond, and said the only question was whether they would restore that banner, or sustain the one that waved so proudly above the stand. The General was listened to attentively, and frequently interrupted with applause.

Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., was the next speaker. He discussed at considerable length the issues involved in the present campaign, and urged upon his hearers the necessity of supporting the Republican nominees of the County and Congressional, as well as the Presidential ticket.

ARRIVAL OF DELEGATIONS.

While Mr. Marshall was speaking the Central Tanner Club and the Twelfth Ward Club arrived, swelling the meeting several hundred. On their arrival they were greeted with a brilliant display of fireworks, including Roman candles and sky rockets.

SPEECH OF HON. J. K. MOORHEAD.

Hon. J. K. Moorhead was then loudly called for, and responded in an excellent speech. He alluded to the bond question, and advocated the sustaining of the National honor.

The meeting adjourned with cheers for the Republican nominees.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT BY THE DEMOCRACY.

The Democracy, as has been their custom thus far during the campaign, made cowardly assaults upon the Tanner Clubs in attendance; while the Central and Twelfth ward clubs were assaulted at several points along the route, and pelted with stones and rotten eggs. A number of the members of the Tanner Club returning in an open car on the Citizen passenger railway were stoned and several of the members slightly injured.

The Twelfth Ward Club, when they marched, selected a portion of their number, who marched along the sidewalk and mixed in the crowd. As the procession was passing the Arsenal, a shower of stones was poured in upon them by some villians stationed among the shade trees. One of the boulders struck Mr. Cochrane, candidate for City Treasurer, on the side of the head, knocking him down and injuring him severely. The members of the Club succeeded in capturing the scoundrel, Joseph H. Shook by name, who threw the stone, and, notwithstanding the efforts of the desperadoes to rescue him, carried their prisoner off in triumph. He was taken before Alderman Herron, and, after a hearing, committed for trial on a charge of assault and battery. He will undoubtedly go to the Penitentiary, and perhaps serve as a warning to the cowardly rowdies who perpetrate these outrageous assaults. Measures will be taken to dispose of all similar culprits in the future in the same manner.

The Mass Meeting at McKeesport.

The Republicans of McKeesport held a rousing mass meeting in the new hall of the borough Saturday evening.

There was an immense crowd in attendance, a large number of persons being unable to obtain admission.

Mr. Wood, President of the borough Grant and Colfax Club officiated as chairman.

A brass band and the McKeesport Glee Club furnished the music, which was all that could be desired.

Able and eloquent speeches were made by John S. Lambie, Esq., and John Glenn, Esq., and the meeting did not adjourn until after ten o'clock.

A Democratic meeting was held in the Diamond, and every effort made to raise a crowd. Mr. Foster, the Democratic candidate for State Senator, and J. K. P. Duff, a Pittsburgh, exponent of the Democracy, spoke but with all their eloquence the meeting of the "unterrified" broke up about nine o'clock.

Twelfth Ward, Attention!

The Republicans of the Twelfth ward (old Ninth) will meet at the Wigwam next Wednesday evening next, at half-past seven o'clock, to name candidates for Council and ward officers, to be nominated by ballot on Thursday, 17th inst., between the hours of three and seven o'clock P. M.

Meetings To-night and To-morrow Night.

Millvale Borough—Speaker, A. M. Brown, Esq.

Chartiers township—Speakers, Thos. Ewing and J. H. Morris, Esqs.

METHODISM.

Annual Session of Pittsburgh Conference Methodist Church—The Death of Rev. V. Lucas—History of the Church—Adrian College—Conference of 1869 to be Held at Fairmount, West Virginia, &c.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

NEW BRIGHTON,
FRIDAY AFTERNOON, Sept. 4, 1868.

Conference opened with religious services, conducted by Rev. John Gregory. Rev. A. Hutton, at his own request, was voted a testimonial of his good standing.

Rev. G. G. Westfall was released from the office of Treasurer of the Conference Missionary Society, and Rev. Jesse H. Hull elected in his stead.

Rev. Jas. Robison gave an interesting account of the recent camp meeting on Susquehanna circuit.

Dr. Sargent, the Superintendent of the New Brighton Sabbath School, being called upon to make a statement in reference to his school, and to give his views on the management of Sunday Schools generally, responded in some happy suggestions.

Rev. Drs. Brown, Reeves, Laishley and Collier paid very touching and tender tributes to the character of the Rev. Valentine Lucas, deceased. Mr. Lucas was one of the most prominent ministers of the Conference, and when his name was pronounced and his Christian life and service were passing in review before the members of the Conference and many other friends, the entire audience was deeply affected. He leaves two brothers still active members of the Conference, both of whom were present.

A committee on obituaries was appointed, who will report an appropriate paper on the decease of Mr. Lucas: Alex. Clark, T. H. Colhouer, Alex. Patton.

A committee of three was appointed to correspond with Rev. Dr. D. B. Dorsey in reference to the publication of his history of the Methodist Protestant and Methodist Churches: John Scott, D. D., Dr. Collier, James Robison.

A paper asking Dr. Collier to prepare for publication his sermon on the "Divinity of Christ" was passed unanimously. It is as follows:

WHEREAS, The Rev. Wm. Collier, D. D., has delivered before this body a sermon of great research and unanswerable argument in defense of a cardinal doctrine of the Methodist Church, viz: "The Divinity of Christ;" and,

WHEREAS, This doctrine is at present one of peculiar interest and importance, owing to the insinuating attacks of infidelity in various forms and from various sources; therefore,

Resolved, That Dr. Collier be requested by this Conference to publish, in permanent form, for general distribution among our people, his views as expressed in the sermon referred to, and that he enlarge and arrange the same according to his own taste and time, for this purpose.

Resolved, That we will use our efforts to circulate this publication among our people generally, in order that it may be a pecuniary success as well as a doctrinal advantage.

ALEX. CLARK.
D. I. K. RINE.
JOHN LORD,

A paper, commendatory of the work on Natural Theology by Dr. Mahan, was unanimously adopted.

Adjourned. Prayer by Dr. Mahan.

SATURDAY MORNING, September 5, 1868.

Conference opened with religious services by J. B. Graham.

Dr. Brown, Chairman of the College Committee, read a very encouraging report, showing that Adrian College, Michigan, is now entirely in possession of the Methodist Church, and is in safe financial condition. The spiritual interests of the students were represented as unusually hopeful. The institution is second to but few in the nation, in respect to facilities, location, endowment, etc. The distinguished A. Mahan, D. D., is the President, and the faculty consists of a corps of competent and popular instructors. The college receives as students, both sexes, and all complexions. During the past year a young colored man graduated with honor, and is now an efficient minister in the West.

Wellsburg, Fairmont, West Viginia, Belleview and Johnstown, Pa., were put in nomination as suitable places for holding the next annual session of the Conference. Fairmont, West Virginia, was selected. The first Wednesday of September, 1869, was fixed as the time for holding the next session.

The appointment of Dr. Ragan, reported yesterday, as given by the United States Senate, is at Ft. Steel, Benton City, Dakotah. His friends will address him there.

The name of Rogersville circuit was changed to Bethel circuit.

After considerable discussion in reference to the report of the Committee on Boundaries, the Conference adjourned with prayer.

MARRIED:

CAIN—KNOX—On Thursday evening, September 3, 1868, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Dr. Bittenger, of Sewickley, Pa., THOS. A. CAIN, of Pittsburgh, to EMMA, daughter of Sarah and the late Jas. A. Knox, of Sewickley, Pa. No cards.

An excursion party from New York over the New Jersey Central Railroad, will arrive in Pittsburgh on Thursday of next week, as will be seen by reference to "Railway Matters," in another column.

California holds no September election this year. The Legislature, at the last session, postponed the election till November, to take place on the same day Presidential Electors are chosen. The error in regard to the September election is almost universal. Maine will complete the September campaign.

Hon. John Sherman, of Ohio, will address the citizens of Pittsburgh at City Hall to-night. Senator Sherman is always eloquent and forcible, and discusses the issues of the campaign with great clearness. Arrangements have been made for giving him a fitting reception, and his audience will be limited only by the capacity of the hall.

Bets, we are aware, prove nothing, except the confidence of the persons making them. Has any one heard of a Seymour man backing up his confidence by betting so much as a cent on Seymour? Such a proceeding has not been heard of in this region, and we presume the man does not live who has bet or will bet on Seymour's election. The reason is simple enough: no one believes he will be elected—and not even greenbacks are plenty enough to deliberately throw away.

We are glad to hear Mr. Pendleton declaring that "upon the result of the elections in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, in October, will depend the result in November." We presume the orator intended to include Pennsylvania also—as nearly everybody else does. The prospect, growing stronger every day, is that these States will go Republican in October. Let Republicans accept Mr. Pendleton's view, and labor to render the November victory sure by constant work whereby the preliminary battle in October will be won.

We wish to give Democratic orators, particularly those who are great on the greenback question, a text. They will not dispute the source, it being from a speech delivered by Horatio Seymour in New York only a few days before his nomination. It is as follows:

> [illegible]

The attention of the Post is respectfully invited to the views of Mr. Seymour.

Mr. Forney expresses the opinion that the Republican majority in Maine, in the approaching State election, will be in excess of 20,000, while Mr. [illegible] is of the opinion that it will be increased at least 15,000. Both of these gentlemen having displayed rare judgment in former estimates, their opinion may be regarded as something more reliable than mere guess-work. The Republican majorities in Maine from 1860 to 1867 were as follows: [illegible]

Whenever a Democrat can be found who will speak frankly concerning the Presidential canvass, he will tell you that he perceives not the remotest chance of the defeat of Grant and Colfax, for the upper and lower currents are both in their favor, and he will sorrowfully admit that the only chance the party had of succeeding was destroyed by the action of the Tammany Convention. It has come to our knowledge within the last few days that this is the belief of the best informed Democrats in this quarter expressed in conversation among themselves.

The Democracy of Massachusetts do not take kindly to the unlimited greenback doctrine, and at their Convention last week expressed a decided preference for "something that clinks," as follows:

> [illegible]

[illegible]

MR. SEYMOUR'S CONFIDENCE [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] for him, he would not have expressed his sense of impending defeat more clearly than is he expressed in the above letter.

THE ROSECRANS-LEE CORRESPONDENCE.

Gen. Rosecrans's White Sulphur performance is altogether worthy of his reputation at the moment he retired from active participation in the war. Whether this amounts to extravagant praise depends upon the light in which are viewed the achievements that sent him into the retirement from which he has just emerged. His letter to Lee, standing alone, will rank as an extraordinary production—almost as extraordinary as anything to which that other self-appointed and famous negotiator, Colorado Jewett, can lay claim. That famous Ambassador will have to look to his laurels, for, if we may gauge expectation of the future by past attempts, there need be no hesitation in coming at once to the conclusion that the hero of Chickamauga will, with practice, distance all competitors.

If assurance will win, then for a certainty may we conclude that Gen. Rosecrans will not fail in any field of diplomacy. "I believe, the people of the North and West believe, the Union army believe." "I ask the officers and soldiers who fought for the Union ask, every thinking man of the great West and North asks," says "Rosy." One would suppose he was some great personage clothed with power to speak for everybody, to demand what everybody was "going to do about it," and fix up all outstanding questions of every name and nature. But the assumptions of the letter do not equal its toadyism in assuring the rebel leaders of his confidence in their "purity," "devotion," "patriotism," "sincerity," and "chivalry," and that they have but to place themselves under his leadership, as he seems to think "our Union soldiers" have done or are panting to do, in order to have "everything lovely and the goose hang high."

Seriously, the effort of Gen. Rosecrans is an insult to the "Union soldiers," and "people of the great North and West," in whose name he has arrogated to himself the right to make and require pledges. If anything were wanting to confirm the suspicion long entertained that Rosecrans is "a little cracked" this performance would settle the matter.

While the letter of General Lee is not open to the same kind of criticism, it will prove no less unsatisfactory. No one would suspect that the signers were the leaders of an unprovoked and wicked rebellion. While the war was raging the South asked only to be "let alone." Such now is the cry of these paroled rebel leaders. Not the slightest suspicion appears to exist in their minds that they have done anything worthy of a penalty. They do indeed acquiesce in the overthrow of slavery; nevertheless they hold that the Reconstruction laws, framed in strict accord with the verdict of the war, are a system of tyrannical oppression, inflicted in the wicked exercise of superior strength, to which the submissive and innocent weaker party, after a fruitless struggle for their "rights," have been compelled to submit. This is the spirit of the Lee letter. While in its language it is more guarded than the speeches of Cobb, Toombs & Co., in spirit it is no better. We look in vain for the first word of dissent from the devastating speeches of Hampton, Wise, Forrest & Co. We look in vain for the slightest trace of regret for having rebelled and plunged the country into a war of unparalleled cost of blood and treasure. On the contrary, the only regret discernible in the document is regret that the rebellion did not succeed.

The Lee letter deliberately and outrageously misrepresents the fact, as made out by overwhelming proof, when it says, "the people of the South entertain no unfriendly feelings towards the government of the United States." It would be easy to fill columns with the proof of the most bitter hostility of the Southern people towards the Government. The feeling which impelled the South to secede, and animated the rebels throughout the war is as alive now as ever. This fact is as plain as the sun at meridian. Not to quote the speeches of a hundred speakers, take the following from the Mobile Tribune of a late date, remembering that this paper, more than any other, is the mouth-piece of public opinion in the South:

> [illegible]

General Lee lays down the conditions whereon the South will cease to revolutionize, to wit:

> [illegible]

Stripped of the dressing in which Lee and his associates have clothed their ideas, the meaning is just this: Give us State rights as we demand, remove the guards which a stupendous wickedness has rendered necessary for the protection of [illegible]

[illegible]

Prison Discipline—Solitary Confinement.

The Pennsylvania system of solitary confinement has been a subject of much thought and discussion among those most interested in prison discipline, and a strong argument is found against it in the fact that those most conversant with its workings are almost unanimously in favor of its abolishment and the substitution of the congregate plan, or at least a modification of the two systems. This matter was discussed at some length, at the meeting of Prison Inspectors, Judges, and others, at the County Work House grounds, on Thursday, and all the gentlemen who spoke upon the subject advocated a change in the law. The State Central Committee has announced that Republican Mass Meetings will be held during the present month, under its direction, as follows:

SMALL NOTES.

When Senator Fessenden, speaking of Gen. Grant, says he knows him to be "an able man of stern integrity," the country has the testimony of a man whose opinions of other men the country has come to highly estimate. It is a fact to be noted that our ablest men agree with Senator Fessenden in regard to Grant. Those who know the General estimate him most highly. The public at large have settled down in the conviction that he is just the man for the emergency, and that no greater service can be rendered to the country than by electing him to the presidency. This conviction has taken a strong hold on the popular mind, and vast numbers will prove superior to party discipline or the personal appeals of leaders.

It seems to be pretty well settled that so well convinced are foreign capitalists that there is no chance for the greenback and repudiation doctrine succeeding that our securities will continue to be in demand, and that a large proportion of the proceeds of foreign goods will go into United States bonds. It is a pleasant thing to see our credit so good, especially under discouragements; but such an exchange is not to be contemplated with satisfaction. American bonds are better than foreign goods; if they were not, foreign manufacturers would not want to make the exchange. A stimulated trade on this basis must be at a heavy cost to our own interests.

The Democratic party, whenever an opportunity offers in selecting candidates, evinces a decided preference for Know Nothings. Here they are supporting for Congress, or at least pretend to be doing so, a Know Nothing, and a dabbler in all sorts of isms, in the person of Andrew Burtt. Their candidate for Vice President was once elected to Congress as the Know Nothing candidate; and last week the Democratic Convention in New York nominated for clerk of the Court of Appeals a dark-lanternite in the person of E. O. Perrin, and a [illegible]. When the order broke up a good many of the devotees found a resting place in the bosom of the Democracy, to become candidates, as it now seems, for the prominent offices.

Mr. Burlingame is something of a prophet. In his speech at the banquet given by the city of Boston to the Chinese Mission, he predicted that the treaty between the United States and China would be attacked, and he predicted how and where. "It will be assailed," he said, "by that spirit of the old indigo planter in India which resisted the English reforms. It will be resisted by the spirit of the old opium-smoker in China. It will be resisted by the men who opposed emancipation in the East Indies." The cable dispatches giving the comments of the English press, on the treaty, have verified the prediction to the very letter. It is evident that the mission, which will sail shortly, for England, will be met with anything but a favorable reception. If John Bull can stand it, certainly we can.

GET A GOOD SAW.

And Your Mill will do Good Work

Our Saws are Oil Tempered, Patent Ground, made to Run well.

You will find each Saw of one Temper no Hard and Soft Spots in the same Saw.

We accomplish this by our Patent Tempering Process, and you can not get this from any other Saw Maker, as we own the Patents for the United States.

We do not claim to make a cheaper Saw than any one else, but one that will run at the word go, and will give no trouble, and will keep round longer, because being uniform with Temper, it will not wear on one side faster than the other.

We invite correspondence, or an interview with the practical man of your firm.

PROPOSALS.

TO RAILWAY CONTRACTORS

The Graduation, Masonry and Ballasting of the following enumerated sections of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad are advertised for contract, and Proposals for the same will be received at the Company's office, in Pittsburgh, up to the 20th of September inclusive, commencing at the Uniontown Branch Junction, about a mile east of Connellsville. Sections 59 to 64 inclusive. Then sections 65, 73, 74, 76, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 106, 110, 112, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 122, 128, 129, 130, 133, 140. All of these sections are in the Valley of the Youghiogheny river, up to section 112 inclusive. Sections 115, 116, 117, are on the summits, and embrace the Sand Patch Tunnel, and the remainder are in the Valley of Wills Creek, section 140 being about five miles from Cumberland.

Specifications of the work on the above sections will be ready for delivery on the 1st of September at the offices of the Company at Pittsburgh and Cumberland, where Contractors will obtain all necessary information to enable them to examine the line. The Company reserves the right to reject all or a part of any bid.

The Celebrated Walter Grape.

After twenty-five years experience with the present tender, and late varieties we know the Walter, now first offered, will restore confidence in Grape raising. It never rots. Its abundant sugar raisins it in-doors or on the vine; it is a great grower and bearer, and now contains 146 clusters of bloom; is very compact in cluster at the East, which is in advantage in marketing. We have not known the foliage to mildew. It succeeds in dry and very wet soil. Is a seedling of the Delaware, crossed with the Diana, and better than either. Ripens before the Hartford, therefore, the earliest, hardiest and best variety. No. 1, one year, $5 each, in advance. Orders filled in rotation, while supply lasts. No charge for packing. Send stamp for beautiful cut and opinions of many vineyards.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium, being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a Life Insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter, the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or to its General Agents.

LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies, with suitable indorsement, should be addressed TO THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

A CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs.

Any derangement or obstruction of these Organs is quickly followed by acute suffering, which, if not corrected immediately, will be followed by the most disastrous consequences. Nature herself will not rally from any prostration of these organs, but must be assisted by the use of a Diuretic; as such

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Stand pre-eminent, having proved themselves superior to any medicine yet discovered for affections of the Kidneys, &c.

Read the following testimony in their favor:

GEO. A. KELLY—Dear Sir: I was so badly afflicted with pain in the kidneys that I could hardly turn myself in bed, and breathing also caused me severe pain. I had given up hopes of ever getting well again, when I bought a box of Dr. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS, which at once relieved me, and I believe they have been the means of the cure. I have also recommended them to others where like complaints were made, and they have in every case proved efficacious. I cheerfully recommend them to any one suffering from this trouble, as I believe they are the best medicine for this class of diseases I have ever heard of. Any further information can be obtained by seeing me at Outer Depot, Pennsylvania Railroad, or at my residence, No. 55 Arthurs street.
